Release

Paris, 19 September 2017

In connection with the implementation of its share buyback program, Hermès International has given a mandate to an investment services provider ("ISP") from 1 June 2016.

This mandate being terminated, a new mandate has been entered into with the ISP today in accordance with the resolutions approved by the shareholders' meeting.

Pursuant to this mandate, Hermès International has instructed the ISP to buy back Hermès International shares on its behalf, independently, in accordance with the applicable regulation and depending on market conditions, up to a maximum of 400,000 shares, at a maximal price per share of 450 euros starting from today and until 30 November 2018 at the latest.
