

PRESS RELEASE

Paris, 17th January 2020

A CHANGE OF ADDRESS FOR THE HERMÈS STORE ON RUE DE SÈVRES DURING EMBELLISHMENT WORKS

Inaugurated in 2010 on the site of the former swimming pool of the Hôtel Lutetia, the Hermès store on rue de Sèvres in Paris is undergoing refurbishment. While the works are carried out, between January and November 2020, the collections of the Parisian house will be available in two temporary stores located in the 6th arrondissement of Paris, as well as in the historic store at 24 rue du Faubourg Saint-Honoré in the 8th arrondissement, from 20th January onwards.

At 17 rue de Sèvres, visitors will find leather and equestrian goods, the home universe and the silk, watch, jewellery and fragrance collections.

The store at 161 boulevard Saint-Germain will house the collections of ready-to-wear, shoes, and men and women's fashion accessories.

Finally, objects by petit h, a métier founded in 2010 and based on its approach to "creation in reverse", can be discovered within the 24 Faubourg store for the duration of the embellishment works.

The Hermès store on rue de Sèvres will reopen in November 2020 in a renovated and extended space. It will offer a new perspective on Hermès' collections, which are nourished by creative freedom and outstanding know-how.

Since 1837, Hermès has remained faithful to its artisan model and its humanist values. The freedom to create, the constant search for beautiful materials, the transmission of a savoir-faire of excellence, and the aesthetic of functionality all forge the singularity of Hermès, a house of objects. An independent, family owned company, Hermès is dedicated to keeping the essential element of production in France through its 42 workshops and to developing its network of 310 stores in over 44 countries as of 30th June 2019. At year-end, the group employed more than 14,700 people worldwide, including more than 9,000 in France.

Axel Dumas, a sixth-generation family member, has been Hermès CEO since 2013. Founded in 2008, the Fondation d'entreprise Hermès supports projects in the areas of artistic creation, training and the transmission of savoir-faire, biodiversity, and the preservation of the environment.
